

Potential Buyer Access to Chicken House Agreement as required by seller

As a potential buyer I agree to follow precautions listed below before entering the chicken houses.

1. I will LIST ALL persons attending the walk through and have read, understood and signed this form in order to enter chicken houses
2. All persons, potential parties will enter property Freshly Showered and have had NO contact w/ birds, chicken houses, duck houses or any related foul prior to attending the scheduled private showing.
3. Seller will provide tyvek coveralls to wear before entering
4. Seller will schedule the private showing with the buyer one group at a time. All people on tour will stay with group led by seller and will follow any other direction given by the seller.
5. No photos may be taken while in the chicken houses.

NOTE: Only parties that have signed this form will have access during the showing.

Signature: _____

DATE: _____

Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____

DATE: _____

Printed Name: _____

Minimizing the introduction and spread of potentially harmful organisms is critical in protecting commercial poultry flocks from devastating disease outbreaks. When a visitor enters onto the farm there are biosecurity procedures in place. By taking these precautions, poultry flock owners can help minimize catastrophic disease outbreak and transmission.